Re: United States v. Roger Thomas Clark
15-cr-866 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I write to update the Court on the progress of my efforts since my letter of April 13, 2020, to prepare for Roger Clark's sentencing. Mr. Clark has received and reviewed the draft Presentence Investigation Report. I reviewed the report with him today by telephone and advised the government and United States Probation of a few minor errors in the report. I have been able to provide materials to Mr. Clark for his review that are relevant to his sentencing. He has access to the Bureau of Prisons email system for three one-hour periods a week. During this time, he is able to communicate with me in writing (although these communications are not treated as privileged by the Bureau of Prisons). If email communication proves inadequate there is a system in place that permits me to seek further attorney-client telephone calls by making a request three days in advance.

Absent any extraordinary circumstances, I see no impediment to Mr. Clark's sentencing going forward on July 30, 2020, as now scheduled. However, I ask that I be permitted to submit a final status letter to the Court on June 15, 2020, addressing any remaining concerns. I have consulted with the government, and the government has no objection to proceeding in this manner.

Mr. Clark also advised me today that his health concerns, which I brought to the Court's attention in my April 24, 2020 letter, have been addressed. He has continued to receive treatment for his medical issues since the Court's request to the government to consult with the MDC about this issue. Mr. Clark asked that I expressed his gratitude to the Court and the government.

、 Respectfully submitted,
